Democrats Trying to Work Fraternization.

Some of the Democratic press are giving all kinds of reasons why Theodore Bell should be re-elected, and they seem to dwell with great emphasis on the numerous fraternal organizations to which Mr. Bell belongs. In other words, he is trying to work the different societies of which he is a member for votes. Mr. Bell wants the members of those societies to cut out political differences and give him the glad hand and the congressional vote all for brotherly love. But the congressional fight is not one of love and good fellowship. It is a matter of politics, reason and hard facts. The people have to have a Republican Congress to accomplish anything for the Second District. The Democratic minority will be out of it.

The fraternal lodge is not working very well, however, for there are Republicans as well as Democrats in the different orders and they refuse to have their organizations tagged with Democracy.

Some of Mr. Bell's Democratic brothers have suggested to different lodges that they give Bell a big send off, but the Republican aggregation wouldn't stand for it and threatened to withdraw, so the little scheme didn't go through.

To the average citizen politics means something, especially in a Presidential year, and he is not content to be just an Elk, an Eagle, a Redman, a Forester, a Druid, a Native Son, an Odd Fellow or a Mason. If he is a Republican he wants to be one. Furthermore politics should not dominate fraternal organizations. Bell is advertising the fact of his fraternal affiliations, but the members of the several orders in the Second District are not unmindful that Duncan E. McKinlay, the Republican nominee for Congress, belongs to some societies, too; but he don't get out with a megaphone and shout about it.

Mr. McKinlay represents the great principle of Republicanism and wants votes on that score and has enough confidence in all Republicans in and out of fraternal organizations to get the votes.

Oh, hear the Bell with the silvery tone,
He's ringing in, he's ringing out.
Oh, what is all this ring about?
Oh, Bell goes dingling night and day,
Making noise from hills to bay.
He ding-dongs records quite galore,
And turns them out, yes, by the score.
He ding-dongs this, he ding-dongs that,
But not a word of Democrat.
The big Bell wants his friends to ring,
So sends around some small ding dings.
We do admit that it's the thing
To be the men within the ring.
It's also nice to be a Bell
And hear yourself from dell to dell.
But silence soon o'er Bell will lower,
He'll ring no more in Congress tower.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McKinlay passed through Napa on Sunday morning's train on their way to the Veteran's Home, so says the Napa Register. Still some of our Democratic friends, for the purpose of securing Bell votes, are circulating the report that Mr. and Mrs. McKinlay are separated. For shame!

UNITED STATES SENATOR GEO. C. PERKINS tells in an interview appearing in the San Francisco Call of Wednesday how he secured the building of the collier at the Mare Island Navy Yard. Congressman Bell has been trying to claim the credit for this.

DUNCAN E. MCKINLAY, Republican nominee for Congress, is a first-class man and will make a Congressman that both Democrats and Republicans will be proud of.

BELL declared for a reduction of the tariff in his speech this week in Woodland.

What Supports The Heart?

The heart is the hardest worked organ of the human body. It beats on an average of seventy times a minute—from the minute of birth to the minute of death. Every half minute or every thirty-second beat the whole of the blood in the body is pumped through the heart, so that the dual heart moves about six tons of blood in each twenty-four hours. On the purity of that blood health depends. On the strength of the heart depends the strength of the body.

The question then is, how can we keep the blood pure and the heart strong? That question answers itself when we know what is the common cause of the blood's impurity, and whence arises the tendency to heart "trouble." What is blood? Blood is only digested food. In proportion as food is nutritious the blood is rich. In proportion as the food is properly digested the blood is pure. Indigested food clogs and corrupts the blood, and indigestion often precedes or attends the first symptoms of heart "trouble." The first necessity to the production of pure blood is that the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition shall be in the perfect working order of sound health, so that the food received into the stomach is properly digested and perfectly assimilated, for the stomach is the vital center of the body. No man is stronger than his stomach, because physical strength is derived from food digested and assimilated. Deaths ascribed to weak heart and "heart failure," therefore, are more properly ascribed to weak stomach and stomach failure.

It is this dependence of the heart upon the stomach which explains the cures of "heart trouble" effected by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood, eliminating from it the substances which corrupt and poison it. Even this alone would take the strain from the overtaxed heart. But Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery also acts directly upon the heart itself. It strengthens the heart's action. It contains one of the best and most efficient heart tonics known to medical practice, and as a natural consequence the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" has resulted in many notable cures of the heart when it has become involved in disease. It removes the predisposing cause of heart trouble and makes the weak heart strong.

$3,000 forfeit will be cheerfully paid, in lawful money of the United States, by the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if they cannot show the original statements and signatures of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing attesting the superior curative properties of their several medicines, and thus proving the genuineness and reliability of all the multitude of testimonials volunteered by grateful people.

World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

"It is with the greatest pleasure that I add my testimony to your list of sufferers who have been helped the same as I have been," writes Mrs. Wm. P. Young, of Trenton, Ontario. "Last January I took a very bad spell and was for ten days and nights suffering pains in my head, neck and jaws, and had faint spells and heart trouble. Was taking five different kinds of medicine from the doctor all at one time. Could not do my housework at all, and stomach troubled me so I could not eat anything without having an uneasy feeling. One day I thought I would give your medicine a trial. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and I feel better now than for years. Can do all the work for seven in family, but before using your medicine I could hardly do any work and could not be left alone. I had been such a sufferer for the last six years. I truly believe that if every poor sufferer would give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial there would not be so many invalids."

"Our little boy, now three and a half years of age had been delicate since birth," writes Mrs. J. A. Shotwell, of East Stroudsburg, Pa., Box 138. "About eighteen months ago an abscess formed in the groin which we had lanced, and it continued to discharge for eight months. We were told an operation would be necessary to stop it. Acting on the advice of friends we began giving our child Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The discharge stopped before he had taken two bottles. He has taken eight bottles and his health now is good."

"For about nine years I suffered with ulcers on my ankle and one on my instep which at times would pain so severely I could not sleep night or day," writes Mrs. J. T. Sefton, of Yatesboro, Pa. "A friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's medicines, which I did, and found great relief. Had only taken one bottle when I could do a hard day's work and could lie down and rest at night without pain. The ulcers are entirely well and I have better health than I have had for about twelve years. Took fifteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and can recommend your medicine to any similar sufferer. I send you sincere thanks, and blessings for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Show Cause Why Order of Sale of Real Estate Should Not Be Made.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND for the County of Sonoma, State of California.

In the matter of the estate of PAUL ROBIN, deceased.

Order to show cause why order of sale of real estate should not be made. C. C. P., sec. 1558.
Frank L. Blackburn, the administrator of the estate of Paul Robin, deceased, having filed his petition herein, duly verified, praying for an order of sale of the real estate of said decedent, for the purposes therein set forth:
It is therefore ordered by the said Court that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased appear before the said Superior Court on Monday, the 17th day of October, 1904, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the court room of Department One of said court, at the Court House, in the city of Santa Rosa, County of Sonoma, State of California, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of the said deceased as shall be necessary. And that a copy of this order shall be published at least one week for four successive weeks, in The Sonoma Index Tribune, a newspaper printed and published in said Sonoma county.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS MANY INVITED GUESTS.

Napa, Vallejo, Callistoga,
Corona and Petaluma
Were Represented

One hundred and six ladies from the Women's Clubs of Napa, Callistoga, Vallejo, Corona and Petaluma were entertained by the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club last Saturday. The occasion was the observation of Reciprocity Day and the Sonoma ladies did themselves proud.

Mrs. Geo. Law Smith and Mrs. Edgar Antrim Osborne were among the most distinguished guests.

The ladies were met at the train by conveyances furnished by the Sonoma Club and were driven to the handsome club rooms on Spain street, where they were received by the reception committee. They were then taken about town and shown the historic buildings, including the old Mission, which they inspected with much interest.

At noon time all repaired to Union Hall, where a delicious luncheon was served. Beautifully decorated tables laden with Sonoma's prize grapes and flowers had been spread and appropriate place cards were at each plate.

Miss Mabel Lowell acted as toastmaster and was much congratulated on her rare wit and repartee.

Mrs. Robt. P. Hill greeted the ladies and the toast, "Our Guests," was responded to by Mrs. Geo. Law Smith, Mrs. Scott of Callistoga, Mrs. Williams of Corona, Mrs. Clark of the Napa Study Club, Mr. Maxwell of the New Century Club of Napa, Mrs. Cheeswright of Petaluma and Mrs. Graham of Vallejo.

Mrs. A. E. Osborne of Santa Clara responded to the toast "Federation," Miss Humphrey "Man," and Mrs. Burlingame "Future."

There was much merry making over some of the toasts, which were extremely clever.

After the feast the company repaired to the club rooms, where they listened to an enjoyable program, which had been arranged by Miss M. Frazer. Mrs. Empan sang several Spanish songs, Miss Bethune and Mrs. Ringstrom sang, L. Weber whistled and Mrs. Geo. Law Smith gave an interesting and instructive talk.

The club rooms were artistically decorated in red, the club colors, and many of the ladies were handsomely gowned.

The affair was one of the largest of the kind ever held in the valley.

Chas. Filippini Wins Suit

Chas. Filippini, the well-known Sonoma Valley dairyman, has won the suit he instituted some time ago against the Appleby Bros. Mr. Filippini sued to quiet title to a strip of land which the Applebys claimed as a right of way across the plaintiff's lands at Merazzo between this place and Napa Junction over which they had carried wild game and fish to market.

Judge Emmet Seawell, who tried the case, held that to decide "that defendants, under the evidence in this cause, have a right to use the plaintiff's land without first making compensation therefor, would be to subordinate the ownership of land and the right of husbandry to the precarious business of duck hunting."

EL VERANO.

By Happy Hooligan.

Politics are quiet here. Nothing doing.

Jack Algren visited San Rafael Sunday.

The Lounibos winery is running full blast.

Jack Hiser has moved his family to Sonoma.

Louis Chance was a city visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. F. A. Riser visited San Francisco Thursday.

Geo. Baines of San Francisco is spending a few days with his folks near this place.

A new bridge has been built near the Bellevue Hotel, which is a credit to the builders.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Murphy of San Francisco spent Sunday on their fine farm south of town.

Tony Bancho has been appointed foreman of the P. I. Company's ranch in this place.

A large number of people from here will take in the Catholic Fair at Sonoma Saturday evening.

Ralph Ent of this place has nearly completed his new residence which is a credit to our town.

John Serres, the accommodating proprietor of the Bellevue Hotel, visited San Francisco Monday.

Mrs. L. Lamotte and Mrs. Louise Nager of El Verano Villa were visitors to Glen Ellen last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hess of San Francisco are visiting here. They have just returned from the World's Fair.

Mrs. Dr. A. D. Shay came up from Oakland Tuesday night and will make her home on her ranch in this place.

Mrs. S. Rainey of Santa Rosa visited her parents. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Carner of this burg, the fore part of the week.

Harry Lord has left for Sacramento where he has accepted a position in a tailoring establishment in that city.

Spider Welch and Kid Sullivan, well-known professional scrappers of San Francisco, were in town several days this week.

Frank Weaver returned from San Francisco last Saturday night after spending a few days sizing up the political situation in that city.

W. M. Mullen and Wm. Chance came up from San Francisco on Friday evening of last week for a quail shoot. They got the limit.

Blair Hart, candidate for Supervisor on the Democratic ticket, and J. H. Weiss his Republican opponent, were in town last Friday doing politics.

Ken Weaver, a local nimrod, had poor luck on the opening day for shooting in this county. His bag consisted of a quail, a coon and one jack rabbit.

Deputy Sheriff Ryan, L. Quartaroli and Adam Adler of Sonoma were passengers on Thursday morning's Southern Pacific train for Santa Rosa.

Phil Rossi will soon commence the erection of his new saloon building opposite Felici Clerici's resort. This will give him a fine location for a road house.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Jury and children of San Francisco are registered at El Verano Villa. Mr. Jury is associated with a large wine firm in the metropolis.

Geo. Laux, the pleasing and accommodating young brakeman of the California Northwestern railway, passed through here Monday en route to Glen Ellen.

Big Jim Akon, an ex-cop of San Francisco, drove through our town Sunday. Big Jim while here last season became noted as a hot air wholesale and retail merchant.

James McIsaac of San Francisco is registered at the Bellevue Hotel. He likes our burg but says there should be a barber here as he has been without a scrape for three days.

Roadmaster Graham is greatly improving the roads in this district and they are now in better shape than ever before. The roads all over the valley reflect much credit on Supervisor Hart and his efficient road overseers.

Quail are scarce in this vicinity this season owing to law-breakers who shoot the birds out of season. Now, that salmon will soon be running up our streams to their spawning grounds "Hooligan" would suggest that a State Fish Commissioner be sent up here to patrol our streams, particularly the Sonoma creek, as a number of these law violators reside in this place and vicinity.

FATAL SHOOTING SCRAPE IN TOWN OF GLEN ELLEN.

John Guidotti is Killed and
L. Ricci Wounded by John Lalini

Jealousy over a woman was the cause of a fatal shooting scrape at Glen Ellen Sunday night about 10:45 o'clock. John Guidotti and L. Ricci were the rivals of John Lalini and in a quarrel over the object of their affections Lalini shot his companions with a 32-calibre revolver which he had in his possession.

Guidotti was shot through the center of the forehead, the bullet penetrating the skull. He lived until the following night. Ricci was shot twice, one bullet entering the front of the head and the other the back of the head. Both bullets glanced, however, and unless blood poisoning sets in he will recover. He was taken to the county hospital, where he is being treated by Dr. Jesse.

Lalini immediately after the shooting made his escape, but was captured Monday in San Rafael and turned over to Sheriff Grace.

Eye witnesses to the tragedy say that Lalini shot in self defense, as his victims had threatened him and following him up to a spot in front of the Roma Hotel, where they attacked him.

It is understood that the men who were shot were hard characters, particularly Guidotti, who has been engaged in several sanguinary encounters in this valley in the past and is said to have killed three men before coming here.

In spite of Guidotti's reputation as a most desperate character and the fact that Ricci is still alive, the coroner's jury brought in a verdict of murder against Lalini, who stoutly maintains that he shot in self defense.

Change Reported on California Northwestern

There is a report current to the effect that on the completion of the Napa branch of the California Northwestern railway Schellville will no longer have an agent at that point and that station will be in the class with Verano. It is said that the present Schellville agent, J. B. Bacon, will be transferred to Napa, where he will take charge of the company's depot at that point.

This report is entirely at variance with the company's decision last June to build a substantial new passenger station at Schellville. Property-owners and shippers in that vicinity petitioned the California Northwestern people to give them a new depot and the railroad consented. Now comes this late report that Napa will get the new depot.

Accepts Position at the California Home

Miss Louise Connolly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Connolly of Petaluma, has accepted a position in the kindergarten department of the California Home at Eldridge. Miss Connolly assumed her duties this week.

Petitions for Guardianship

L. Quartaroli, through his attorney, J. T. Campbell of Santa Rosa, has petitioned the Superior Court to be appointed guardian of the estate of Celestine Guidotti, an incompetent. The former guardian, J. Guidotti, a brother, was the man shot and killed in Glen Ellen last Sunday night.

Just for Ducks

The open season for ducks came in on Saturday last and a crowd of local nimrods and city hunters swarmed the marshes in quest of the birds, which were few and far between, and the hunters, for the most part, came home with empty bags and long faces. The early rains have kept the ducks off the marshes on the bay shores for the more inviting fresh water ponds of the interior so there is no good shooting in this vicinity as yet.

Drs. Sprague and Thomson were among the local hunters who went out to try their luck on the opening day. Upon their return home they reported having seen but one lone duck and that was going in the wrong direction.

Skelton Glaister also invaded the tules on the opening day. He likewise came home with an empty game bag but had the satisfaction of seeing one stray bird near the Sonoma drawbridge which Peter Hein, the bridge-tender, declares was not a duck at all but one of those detestable mud hens.

Harry Fischer had a straight tip that there was something doing in the duck line and armed with his trusty shot gun was seen going in the direction of the marshes with his butcher wagon instead of a game bag. Coming to the pond to which he had been directed he saw some fine canvas backs through the bullrushes. He prepared to shoot them through the feathers when lo! he took another look and saw they had no feathers—they were decoys. But Harry has some real ones coming.

Town Improvements

There is still much activity along the line of improvements in Sonoma.

The cottage being erected by D. H. Twing on First-street West north of Napa street is progressing rapidly and is an attractive little building.

The stone structure which Chas. Dalpogetto is putting up on Napa street near the Postoffice is being rushed through and the walls are rapidly rising to completion.

Peter Yenni is having his buildings on First-street West and Napa street shingled, painted and otherwise improved.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Calderwood are having their two-story residence on First-street East south of Napa street newly painted and otherwise improved.

The Castex building on Napa street will soon be ready for occupancy. It is a two-story white stone edifice and is one of the handsomest buildings in town.

The District Attorney Gets Letter About Catlin

District Attorney C. H. Pond is in receipt of a letter regarding Willis Catlin, from N. R. Meredith, who accuses Catlin of marrying his sister-in-law after having made Miss Mabel Lewis of Glen Ellen his bride. J. H. Everidge, Deputy Marshal of Hugo, Indian Territory, also writes. He says Catlin married a woman there last March and then deserted her. Meredith claims this woman was Mrs. Christian McDonald, his sister-in-law, and that she and her husband, Willis Catlin, were guests at the Meredith home last May and June.

Catlin has been discharged on the petty larceny charge as the evidence against him was insufficient to secure a conviction. No complaint has yet been formally made on the bigamy charge.

Just for Ducks

The open season for ducks came in on Saturday last and a crowd of local nimrods and city hunters swarmed the marshes in quest of the birds, which were few and far between, and the hunters, for the most part, came home with empty bags and long faces. The early rains have kept the ducks off the marshes on the bay shores for the more inviting fresh water ponds of the interior so there is no good shooting in this vicinity as yet.

Drs. Sprague and Thomson were among the local hunters who went out to try their luck on the opening day. Upon their return home they reported having seen but one lone duck and that was going in the wrong direction.

Skelton Glaister also invaded the tules on the opening day. He likewise came home with an empty game bag but had the satisfaction of seeing one stray bird near the Sonoma drawbridge which Peter Hein, the bridge-tender, declares was not a duck at all but one of those detestable mud hens.

Harry Fischer had a straight tip that there was something doing in the duck line and armed with his trusty shot gun was seen going in the direction of the marshes with his butcher wagon instead of a game bag. Coming to the pond to which he had been directed he saw some fine canvas backs through the bullrushes. He prepared to shoot them through the feathers when lo! he took another look and saw they had no feathers—they were decoys. But Harry has some real ones coming.

THE ALBATROSS.

Its Wandering Flights and Some Odd Beliefs About the Bird.

Of all the strange creatures seen by travelers not the least interesting is the wandering albatross. This great, feathered wanderer, sometimes measuring seventeen feet from tip to tip of its wings, will follow a ship for days at a time. Some travelers and sailors declare that they have seen a particular bird fly for weeks at a time without ever being seen to alight upon the waves.

It not merely follows the ship, but wheels in great circles around it and above it, high in the air, as if to show that it is not tired. Sometimes the bird will be seen to hang in the air with its wings apparently motionless, and the sailors say that then it is asleep.

Not only in pleasant weather will the albatross follow a ship for days and weeks, but through the most terrific storms it will continue its untiring flights. In fact, to find an albatross otherwise than on the wing is like finding a weasel asleep.

Once a year the female albatross flies away a few thousand miles to the great, lonely island rock of Tristan d'Acunha, which lies in the desolate far in the south Atlantic, or to some equally remote place, and there lays one egg in the hollow of a rock.

The albatross has always been a bird of mystery, and in ancient times the people believed that these unwearied sea birds were the companions of the Greek warrior Diomedes, who were said to have been changed into birds at the death of their chief.

When America was discovered and ships began to sail abroad to the Pacific ocean, to double the Cape of Good Hope and to explore the "seven seas" generally, the old belief about the albatross had been forgotten by the sailors and explorers, but in their long and lonesome voyages over waters which were cut by no keel but their own and upon whose vast expanse they saw no other sail but theirs the presence of the albatross following the ship day after day became a great source of comfort and companionship. So it came to be a belief that ill luck would follow any one who killed one of these birds, and that belief is common among seafaring men of this very day. Coleridge's famous "Rime of the Ancient Mariner" is based upon this belief.

Though the superstition about the killing of an albatross bringing bad luck is only a foolish one, it has served a useful purpose for many years in preventing the slaughter of these beautiful and gallant birds—the sailors' friends and the landmen's wonder.

Up in dreary Kamchatka, that outlying part of Siberia which cuts into the north Pacific, the natives, never having heard of the superstition about the albatross, catch him and eat him. But his flesh makes such poor food that, after all, the legend may be said to hold good, for one in had luck who has to make a meal of him.—Washington Post.

A Frenchman's Ruse.
Mme. Bouvet, the wife of a Paris shopkeeper, who left him, received the following letter: "If you will not come and see me alive, you will perhaps come and see my corpse, for by the time you receive this letter I shall have committed suicide." She hastened to her husband's house, and on breaking open the door saw a body still swinging to and fro. "Oh, my poor Edward!" she sobbed. "I have killed him, and I am a wretched woman." At that moment her husband rushed out of the kitchen, exclaiming, "No, you have not killed me, but you will if you do not come back at once." The body was found to be a skillfully made dummy which had been arranged by the artful husband. He was nevertheless arrested on the charge of hoaxing a public official, as Mme. Bouvet was accompanied by a police magistrate.

The Man.
The way a man describes business deals to his wife would make his male associates wonder and wonder whether they have not entertained a business prodigy unaware.

The nearest way to a man's heart is through his stomach, and the nearest way to his temper is through his pocketbook.

In youth a man often desires a son to bear his name. In middle age he often desires a daughter to help him to forget the same son.

One thing makes a man's tact glaringly conspicuous, his absence.

Men rate a woman at the value she places on herself.—Clubwoman.

A Question of Weight.
The enthusiasm of oarsmen for their sport is, I think, keener even than that of the golfer. They never can help talking "shop." The other day a young oarsman told me of his engagement to be married and also of the engagement of another well known oarsman. I endeavored to find words suitable to the occasion, but I was stopped, as he promptly interjected, "You know, mine's 11 stone 3, and X's is only 9 stone 1."

The ruling passion was strong in love.—London Truth.

The Consultation.
Friend—You've never been called in consultation, have you? Young Doctor—No, but I'd like to be. It's nice to charge ten times as much as the other doctor for saying that you don't know any more about the case than he does.—Puck.

The Doctor's Viewpoint.
Doctor—Well, sir, I congratulate you. It's all nicely over. Newstrop—And what is it, doctor? Doctor—One hundred dollars, thank you.—Town Topics.

FRUITFUL FACTS.

Lemons are an excellent remedy in pulmonary disease.

Persia practically enjoys the monopoly of the date trade.

Sicily has some of the finest lemon orchards in the world.

The pear tree will continue bearing fruit for several centuries.

The cherry, the peach and the plum all originally came from Persia.

Strawberries are regarded as particularly good for scrofula and gout.

At one time strawberries were sold upon straws. Thus they got their name.

The barana is a perfect food. Weight for weight it is claimed to be as nutritious as the beefsteak.

About one pineapple in 20,000 has seeds in it, and it is from these seeds that new varieties are produced.

Prunes are the dried fruit of certain kinds of plums which are put into very slow ovens. The finest of all, the French prunes, are made in Provence.

Not One Agreed.
Dr. X, of Capitol Hill has—rare thing for a Washington physician—an Irish driver. The doctor's horse is kept at a livery stable, and when its owner and the driver arrived there on a Sunday morning not long ago the doctor discovered that his watch had run down hours before. He asked the time of one of the men lounging about the stable. The man produced a noisy tin turnip and announced the hour as 9. The livery stable keeper's watch made it 8:57. Somebody else's had it 9:10.

When America was discovered and ships began to sail abroad to the Pacific ocean, to double the Cape of Good Hope and to explore the "seven seas" generally, the old belief about the albatross had been forgotten by the sailors and explorers, but in their long and lonesome voyages over waters which were cut by no keel but their own and upon whose vast expanse they saw no other sail but theirs the presence of the albatross following the ship day after day became a great source of comfort and companionship. The Practical View.
"The trees stand up so beautifully," exclaimed the young poet, just home from college.

"What makes you think so?" "They seem to laugh in the wind, and bow 'good morning' to you," continued the poet.

"Look here, John," said the old man, "fore you go plum crazy, take this here ax 'n' chop me down a dozen trees an' run 'em through the sawmill!"—Atlanta Constitution.

No Discrimination.
"Beensay has a good ear for music." "What makes you think so?" "He told me you were the worst singer he ever heard."

"That's strange." "Why?" "He told me you were the worst."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Homely, but Wise.
This motto is displayed on a downtown desk: "The elevator to success is generally stuck, try the stairs." Homely, but wise.—Boston Traveler.

There are those who think that if their brand of soap had been known the world would have been cleaned without a flood.—Mark Twain

Emergency Medicines
It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in case of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn, it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by R. G. Shoults, Sonoma, Cal.

Through the Telescope.
Upgrader—You were in a railway car once when it was telescoped. What was the sensation? Atom—It made me see stars.—Exchange.

Of Course.
Tommy—Pop, what makes the fountain play? Tommy's Pop—The water-works, my son.—Philadelphia Record.

If you like to read and have many books, be careful lest you read too much and think too little.

A worthless man always has his sign out.—Atchison Globe.

Abscess
W. H. Harrison, of Cleveland, Miss., writes, August 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg. So one day I went to J. F. Lord's store (who is now in Denver, Col.) He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment. I got a 30-cent size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world." It is the best liniment in the world. They may, however, result from blows or from foreign bodies introduced into the skin or flesh, such as splinters, thorns, etc. Sold by L. S. Simmons, prescription druggist, Sonoma, Cal.

Notwithstanding the late rains the grape harvest is in full blast.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy
"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble, and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend Mr. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved, and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by R. G. Shoults, Sonoma, Cal.

The Doctor's Viewpoint.
Doctor—Well, sir, I congratulate you. It's all nicely over. Newstrop—And what is it, doctor? Doctor—One hundred dollars, thank you.—Town Topics.

What Did the Romans Smoke?

At a depth of nine feet underground at the old Roman fort of Aliso, near Halteru, the surface of which was proved to have remained undisturbed since the Roman occupation, fifty-four fragments of various clay pipes were found. Their shape was almost uniform, and they could be divided into three groups, one of which was characterized by clumsy and very rough workmanship. The other groups were of much finer make and decorated with figures and Roman characters. From marks found on all of them it was evident that they had been used for smoking.—London Standard.

How He Won Her.
A Frenchman whose wife deserted him amused his neighbors by telling how he got her back without trouble.

"Did I run after her and beg her to come back?" he dramatically asked.

"No, I did not run after her. I just published in the paper that I have drawn fifty thousand in the lottery, and she ran back much quicker than in no time."

Painful Points Too.
"You're a queer looking thing to want to fight with me," said the young bulldog contemptuously. "You're not in my class."

"Perhaps not," replied the porcupine quietly, "but I think I can give you a few points."—Philadelphia Press.

Neglected Colds
Every part of the mucous membrane, the nose, throat, ears, head and lungs, is subjected to disease and blight from neglected colds. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is a pleasant and effective remedy. 25c, 50c, $1. W. Akendrick, Valley Mills, Tex., writes, "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and throat troubles. It is a pleasant and most effective remedy." Sold by L. S. Simmons, prescription druggist, Sonoma, Cal.

Pin Money For the Rich.
The devices of the daughters of rich men to make their own money are perfectly well known to the managers of women's exchanges, which are established solely to help poor women put their work on the market. One day I was in an exchange when a woman, evidently a lady's maid, came in and registered some embroidery in her own name. The superintendent took up the work and in a casual way asked the supposed artist to show her how to do a particular stitch. The woman pleaded lack of time and went out embarrassed and guilty looking. "I thought so," said the superintendent. "She brings her mistress' work. Her mistress is the daughter of a very rich man, but she has no pocket money, and the poor thing has to cheat the exchange by selling her work here under her maid's name."—Everybody's Magazine.

Beautiful Women
Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, writes, May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria." Sold by L. S. Simmons, prescription druggist, Sonoma, Cal.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.
